Subject: Letter of Congratulations and Thanks

Dear Mr President,

On behalf of the Executive Committee of the European University Sports Association (EUSA), let us offer our sincere congratulations on the excellent and record-breaking 27th edition of the Summer Universiade in Kazan, Tatarstan, Russia.

At the same time, we would like to thank you, the Republic of Tatarstan and the Organising Committee for your considerable efforts in the organisation and management of this event, and also your hospitality during the Universiade. The success of the event was undoubtedly noticed not only by EUSA Representatives, but also by the participants and other guests.

We recognise and appreciate the level of co-ordination required to stage such an event, applauding the manner in which all persons engaged in this event did their utmost to meet the needs of the teams and officials present in, and thus delivered such enjoyable and successful Universiade.

Please pass on our personal thanks to your colleagues for their individual contributions, and the gratitude of EUSA.

With best regards,

Adam Roczek,
President
