FAQ : Mr. Minnikhanov, President of the Republic of Tatarstan

Dear Mr. President,

On behalf of the Great Britain team competing at the 27th Universiade In Kazan, I am writing to express our gratitude to you and your colleagues in the Local Organising Committee for the welcome, hospitality and support we have received whilst in Tatarstan.

The Athletes Village in particular has been superb – spacious, well-appointed, with excellent facilities and services, and helpful and supportive staff and volunteers. The catering facility and provision has also been excellent.

Team GBR are delighted to be in Kazan, and I speak on behalf of all our delegation when I say that we have had a fantastic experience so far. The Games are not yet over, and we look forward to the final days of competition, and what I am sure will be a fantastic closing ceremony.

I hope that the Universiade provides a valuable and long-lasting legacy to the city and people of Kazan – I know that the memories and friendships formed by the participants will last a lifetime.

Yours Sincerely,

Neil Rogers
Deputy Chef de Mission, Team GBR
